MUSIC NOTES – McNeil Robinson, the composer of today’s anthem lives in New York City. He was for many years organist/director of music at the Church of St. Mary the Virgin and has recently retired from the faculty of the Manhattan School of Music. The text of the anthem is a narrative of the discovery of the resurrection by Mary Magdalene based on a text by John Newton:

*Mary to her Savior’s tomb hastened at the early dawn.
Spice she brought and sweet perfume, but the Lord she loved was gone.
For a while she weeping stood, struck with sorrow and surprise,
Shedding tears a plenteous flood, for her heart supplied her eyes.
O my Savior, O my Savior, where has my Savior gone?
O my Savior, here is my Savior, He is risen from the tomb. Alleluia.*

Widor’s Toccata is the iconic postlude for Easter Sunday, and will be heard in many churches throughout the USA. Its simple but monolithic theme, heard mostly in the pedals, is surrounded by a never-ceasing avalanche of notes for the player’s hands which creates a brilliant and shimmering texture. It moves from almost-full-organ to quieter sounds before resuming, and ending, with the full power of the organ.

SPECIAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING – next Sunday, April 12, after the second Mass in the fellowship area below the Cathedral. The single item for consideration is the expansion of the Parish Committee.

We are grateful, indeed, for the affection in which she held the Cathedral Parish, a regard that she has demonstrated generously towards us.
