MUSIC NOTES – It was not at all unusual for composers, especially in the Baroque era, to re-use melodies or to re-write entire pieces for different sets of instruments. Handel, Bach, and Vivaldi are among those composers who freely borrowed from themselves as well as from other composers and recycled tunes or, sometimes, entire pieces. These re-arrangements are called ‘transcriptions.’ Today’s organ music was originally written by Handel for orchestra as a set of pieces for a royal concert in 1717. This morning we hear them as transcribed for organ. The Air is, as its name implies, a song-like piece while the Hornpipe originated as a dance.

IT'S THE THOUGHT THAT COUNTS – Choosing a gift for an elderly mother... Three sons left home, went out on their own and prospered. Getting back together, they discussed the gifts they were able to give their elderly mother.

The first said, "I built a big house for our mother." The second said, "I sent her a Mercedes with a driver." The third smiled and said, "I've got you both beat."

You remember how mom enjoyed reading the Bible? And you know she can't see very well. So I sent her a remarkable parrot that recites the entire Bible. It took elders in the Church 12 years to teach him. He's one of a kind. Mama just has to name the chapter and verse, and the parrot recites it."

Soon thereafter, mom sent out her letters of thanks: "David," she wrote one son, "The house you built is so huge. I live in only one room, but I have to clean the whole house."

"John," she wrote to another, "I am too old to travel. I stay most of the time at home, so I rarely use the Mercedes. And the driver is so rude!"

"Dearest Jeffrey," she wrote to her third son, "You have the good sense to know what your mother likes. The chicken was delicious."
