MUSIC NOTES – Today’s organ music is a family affair: Bach and Walther were contemporaries and cousins. Besides being an organist and composer, Johann Gottfried Walther compiled and published the first German-language dictionary of music and musicians which defined over 3,000 musical terms. His prelude on Praise ye the Lord is one of 132 organ preludes he wrote on Lutheran hymn tunes. The accompaniment pre-figures the hymn tune which is subsequently announced boldly by the pedals. His cousin, J. S. Bach, also wrote organ preludes on hymn tunes, and his setting of Our Father in heaven is a straightforward presentation of the hymn in the top voice of the texture.

JUNE IS SACRED VOCATIONS MONTH – An excerpt from Prime Bishop Mikovsky’s missive on sacred vocations in the PNCC:

“As we seek to increase vocations to the priesthood of our Holy Church, we must do so in our prayer life, in our parish life and in our home life. Therefore I encourage each of you, as individuals and together as a parish to continue to:

Pray for Vocations – individually and as a parish;

Seek out Vocations - speak to young men about serving our Lord in His Holy Church;

Encourage Vocations – get young men involved in the liturgy and work of the Parish, as an Acolyte, or Lector, in Youth Group and Parish ministries;

Pave the way for Vocations – work with, pray for and support your parish priest to show the young men of the Church that the priesthood is respected and honored;

Talk About Vocations – let the young men of the Church know of the important work done by parish priests.”

This week’s prayer for Sacred Vocations: O loving and gracious God, Father of all, you bless your people in every time and season and provide for their needs through your providential care. Our holy Church is continually in need of priests, to offer themselves in the service of the gospel by lives of dedicated love. Open the hearts of your sons among us of all ages and have them listen to your call in their lives. Give them the gift of understanding to discern your invitation to serve you and your Church. Give them the gift of courage to follow your call. May they have the spirit of young Samuel who found fulfillment in his life when he said to you, "Speak Lord, for your servant is listening." We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

CLERGY PENSION PLAN COLLECTION on FATHER’S DAY – Please be generous with your offering for this worthy cause today so that one day the current $600 monthly pension which is not available to priests till age 70 might be set at a higher level, and offered at an earlier age.
