CONGRATULATIONS TO – our Father Janusz who is celebrating his 25th anniversary of ordination to the priesthood. Father Janusz will mark this significant event in his ministry on July 13th in Rome, NY along with Fathers Marian Pociecha and Andrew Koterba, priests of our Diocese, who attended the same seminary as Father Janusz and who were all ordained in Poland 25 years ago in June. As their Bishop is constrained from attending this happy and remarkable occasion due to pastoral expectations, the Primate, who was Bishop to two of the three jubilarians, will honor all of them by providing the dignity of an episcopal presence which their joyous event deserves. Father Pociecha is pastor of the Rome Parish, and Father Koterba is pastor of our East Meadow Parish, Long Island. May God bless Father Janusz and his school mates as they commemorate their common milestone at a concelebrated Mass and banquet afterwards hosted by the Rome Parish. Our parish in Rome will also observe and celebrate its pastor’s 50th birthday at that 25th-anniversary banquet. Sto Lat to Father Pociecha & his 2 friends!

ARE YOU the person we’re looking for – to head up a St. Stanislaus Cathedral Office of Information? There are many wonderful things happening here that many need to hear about in the papers, newsletters, local television etc. Maybe you’re the person who could be a liaison letting our larger Scranton community know about the British bishops just with us, the wonderful Valedictory spoken at our Elementary School Commencement recently, or the Flea Market, or the Kurs, Convo 2014, One Hot Meal and the Block Party. More people gotta know ‘bout the great stuff that we have and that we do. Word’s gotta git out! Can you do it for us? See Mage or Bishop or Fr. Janusz or any Parish Committee member to offer your help.

PARISH DUES – They are currently $245 per annum. One half year remains for our parishioners to fulfill this support of the Parish.
