While Prime Bishop Emeritus John Swantek will celebrate Mass in Tripp Park next Sunday, he'll be the sole prelate and clergyman here as the Primate will be at the Lancaster Cathedral that day, Father will be in New York City and I will be in Pittsburgh for celebrations with Bishop Mack. I know you'll make Father Basta feel welcome among us.

NEW ORGANIST / DIRECTOR OF MUSIC – Our search continues for a qualified candidate to fill the vacancy in this position. Auditions are taking place in seeking a suitable replacement for Dr. Picerno. In the interim, substitute organists have been engaged including Dr. Barbara Nowicki, Mr. Matthew Geda and Ms. Rebecca Elfman. The orders of service at each Mass will indicate the guest organist each week,

WREATHS ACROSS AMERICA – Each year, millions of Americans come together to REMEMBER the fallen, HONOR those that serve and their families and TEACH the next generation about the value of freedom. This gathering of individuals and communities takes place in local and national cemeteries in all 50 states to lay wreaths there as part of National Wreaths Across America Day.

This coming December 15th at noon, the St. Stanislaus UYA will be taking part at our cemetery on Kane Street. Everyone is welcome to participate so keep the date open.

Prior to that date, the Youth Group will survey the cemetery to identify all veterans' graves. If you have deceased veterans buried in our cemetery and want to be sure they are recognized with wreaths from this special program, simply submit their names and approximate location of the graves to a UYA member, or drop these off in the church office, or email them to office@saintstanislauspncc.org.

A WHALE of a STORY – A little girl was talking to her teacher about whales.

The teacher said it was physically impossible for a whale to swallow a human because even though it was a very large mammal its throat was very small.

The little girl stated that Jonah was swallowed by a whale.

Irritated, the teacher reiterated that a whale could not swallow a human; it was physically impossible.

The little girl said, "When I get to heaven I will ask Jonah".

The teacher asked, "But, what if Jonah went to the other place?"

The little girl replied, "Then you ask him."
